

Video Discussion Guide: Inclusion Weekly: What is UCS?

Accompanying video presented by Special Olympics Unified Champion Schools®

THINK FIRST

What are ways that you practice inclusion in your school, community, and every day life?

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS (Or fill out on your own)

What are the three main ways that Special Olympics Unified Champion Schools include youth with and without intellectual disabilities?

What are some of the ways that the students of all abilities at Immakolee High School engage with each other?

Tajha mentioned that she connects with some of her peers because of her experience being bullied. How would you address a situation where a peer with a disability was being bullied?

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Why do you feel it is so important for schools to include students of all abilities in leadership roles and group activities?

In what ways would you go about making your school more inclusive, if it is not already?

A STEP FURTHER

Think about the ways your school is currently being inclusive. What strategies can you share to students or groups who are new to inclusion?

WANT TO LEARN MORE?

- Not sure where to start? Visit www.generationunified.org/resources for tools about starting a Unified program as a student.
- Take a look at the Unified Club Guide and start a Unified club at your school. Already have a club? Start a project as a youth leader.
- Watch more stories about youth leaders like you to feel inspired!